

Young Worker Parent Questionnaire

Young Worker Parent Questionnaire

Results compiled on July 25, 2003
by Prevention Internet Services

Q1. Do you think injuries could be prevented by having young workers (15 - 24 years of age) take a certificate in workplace safety?

Q2. If a Young Worker Safety Certificate program was offered for free in your community, would you encourage your child/children to take it?

Q3. What would be the best incentive(s) for your child/children to take a Young Worker Safety Certificate Program?

a) To learn about safe practices in the workplace so he/she could prevent injury to him/herself and others

Q3. What would be the best incentive(s) for your child/children to take a Young Worker Safety Certificate Program?

b) To get elective high school credits

Q3. What would be the best incentive(s) for your child/children to take a Young Worker Safety Certificate Program?

c) To shorten his/her probationary period as a new worker

Q3. What would be the best incentive(s) for your child/children to take a Young Worker Safety Certificate Program?

d) To get a promotion

Q3. What would be the best incentive(s) for your child/children to take a Young Worker Safety Certificate Program?

e) To earn a higher wage

Q3. What would be the best incentive(s) for your child/children to take a Young Worker Safety Certificate Program?

f) To have a better chance of getting a job

Q3. What would be the best incentive(s) for your child/children to take a Young Worker Safety Certificate Program?

g) My child would only take the course if it was mandatory

Q4. Which format would be best for a Safety Certificate Program?

Q5. How much would you be willing to pay for your child to take a Safety Certificate Program?

Q6. What would you want your child to learn in a worker safety certificate program?

a) Safety-related rights and responsibilities for workers and for employers

Q6. What would you want your child to learn in a worker safety certificate program?

b) What to do when injuries happen

Q6. What would you want your child to learn in a worker safety certificate program?

c) Specific types of hazards and how to identify them

Q6. What would you want your child to learn in a worker safety certificate program?

d) What to do to prevent injuries

Q6. What would you want your child to learn in a worker safety certificate program?

e) How to interact with co-workers and supervisors about unsafe situations

Q6. What would you want your child to learn in a worker safety certificate program?

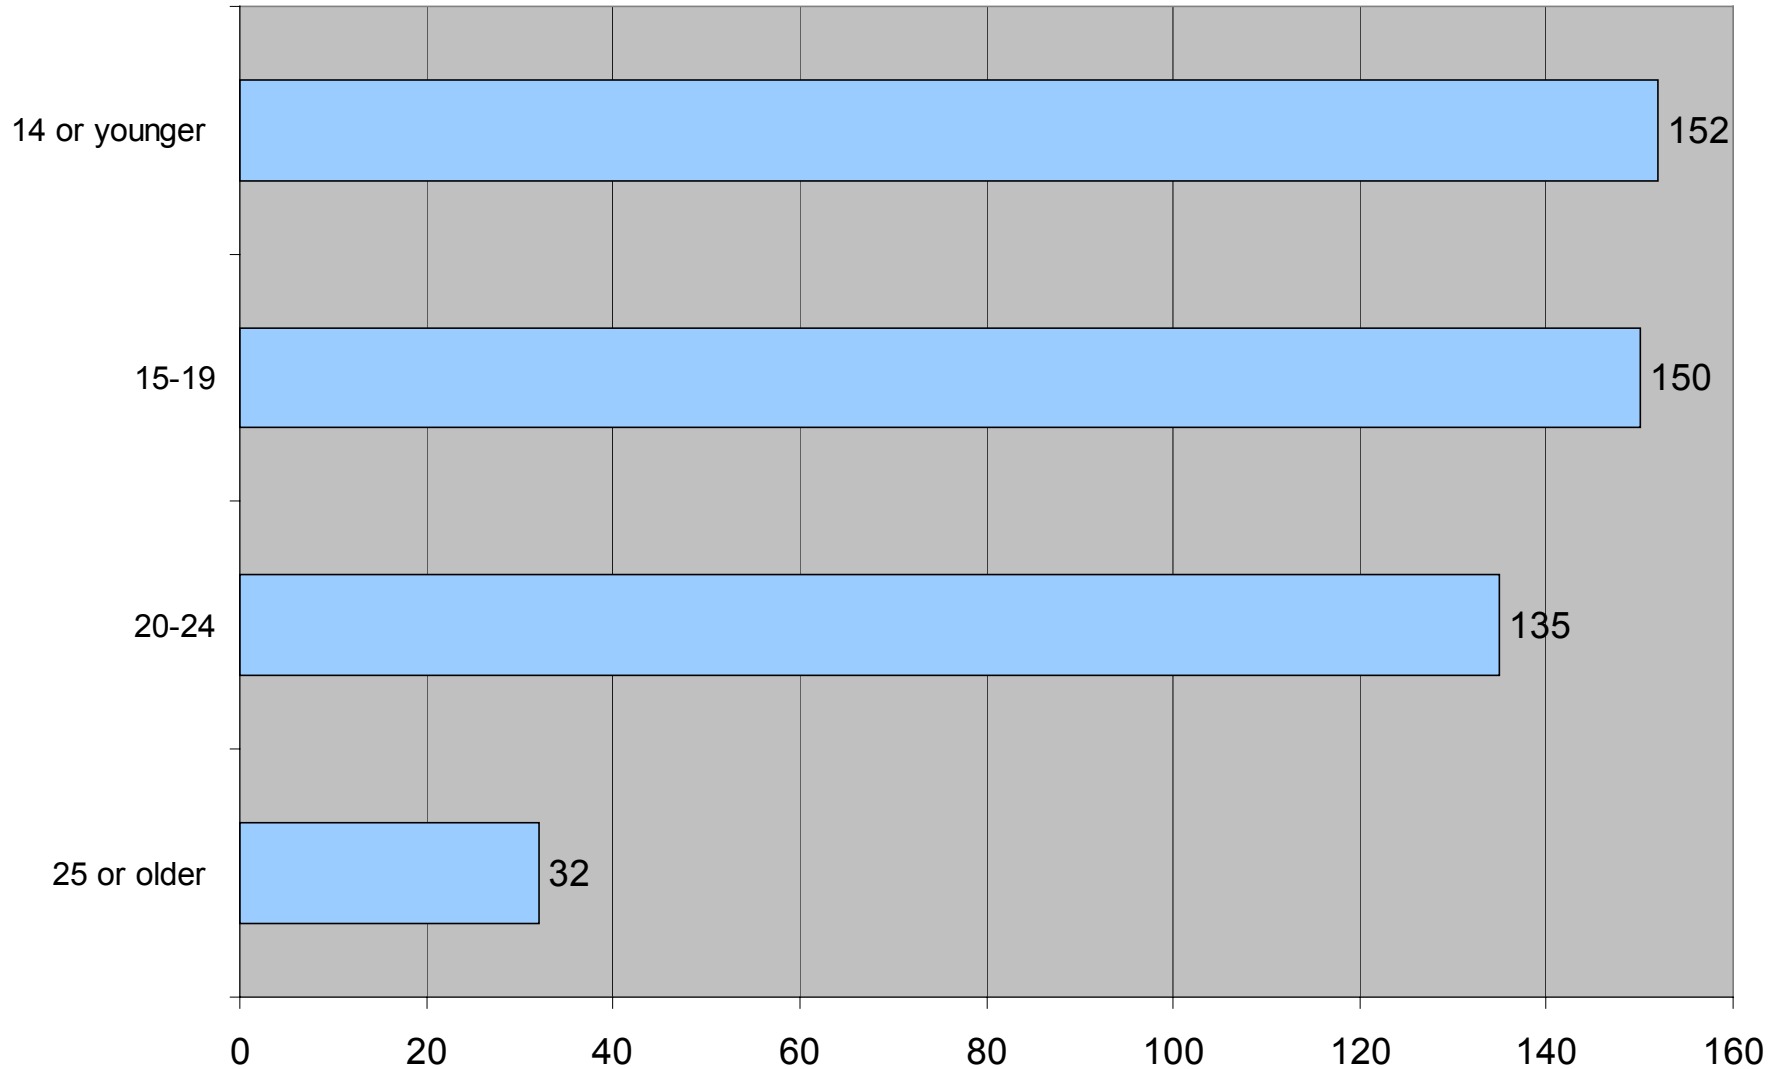

f) Safety risks in the specific industry in which your child would like to work (or is already working)

Q7. My child would be most likely to take the program, if it were offered as :

Q8. How old are your children?

Q9. Are you

Q10. In what area of British Columbia do you live?

Q11. Is your child/children working now?

Q12. If your child/children is/are working now, in what industry do they work?

Q14. To your knowledge, how much workplace health & safety training has/have your child/children already received?

FOR INTERNAL WCB USE ONLY

Q15. Prevention REGION:

